

Young Monroe Stars in Victory of Giants—Pipp's Home Run Wins Game for Yankee

Recruit Helps McGraw's Vets To Rout Rivals

Substitute for Frisch Makes Homer and Two Singles; Houston Beaten by 10 to 1

By Charles A. Taylor

HOUSTON, Tex., March 22.—The Houston Buffs, managed by George Whiteman, the old Red Sox player, proved easy marks for the Giants this afternoon, being defeated by the one-sided score of 10 to 1. But Whiteman need not despair of making a good showing in the Texas League race, for the big total run up by the McGraw men was chiefly due to stars fighting on the part of the Houston team in the first two innings. After Whiteman got his hands settled down things went better for the local team.

Johnny Monroe, who once played here, performed wonderfully well in his first game. All Johnny did was to make a home run and two singles, draw a pass and drive out a sacrifice fly. Inasmuch as Monroe has not fully recovered from his injury of two days ago, it must be said that he more than lived up to the expectations of Manager McGraw, who has been touting this youngster highly of late.

Next to Monroe, Dave Bancroft gained the best results with the old club. Dave collected three singles in his five chances at bat. Long George Kelly, who once upon a time did all his heavy hitting in the State of Texas, found the going hard again to-day and was unable to garner even one safety.

From the pitching standpoint, the most creditable work was done by Phil Douglas, who held the Buffs to two hits and no runs in the five innings he labored on the mound. Jess Barnes pitched the game at close range and allowed four hits and the lone run scored by the home team.

Frank Frisch was in uniform and indulged in light practice both at the bat and in the field before game time. Frank probably will return to the lineup in the games at New Orleans Saturday and Sunday.

George Burns took a try at shortstop from the sixth inning on, "Honey" Walker covering left field. Burns did not have many chances, but managed to produce an error at that.

The sensational fielding of "Goldie" Rapp won the applause of the fans. Never has a player deserved the praise heaped upon him more than Goldie. He not only caught the third out of the inning, but he was the only one in the infield whenever he sees a chance to help along.

Glants to Play Browns

A change in the schedule of games at New Orleans was announced by McGraw after the game. The Giants will play the New Orleans Pelicans Saturday and the St. Louis Browns on Sunday instead of meeting the Pelicans twice.

Gene Bailey, who once was an outfielder for the Braves, is the regular second baseman of the Houston Buffs. Gene fielded well to-day, but made only one hit.

Giant Rookie Makes 5 Hits in 5 Times Up

BONHAM, Tex., March 22.—Roy Grimes, playing second base for McGraw, made his debut in the Texas League here to-day, lined out five hits in as many trips to the plate. One of the clouts was a home run that cleared the field fence by several yards. It was one of the longest smashes ever made on the field.

Davenport and Henline comprised the battery for the Buffs. Henline took the mound when Benlin took up the mound work. The Giant rookies started pounding the Bonham pitchers in the first inning, when they scored three runs. Bonham's only run was scored in the third.

The score by innings:

Huggins Drops Eleven Players; Peck Finally Signs Contract

Quinn Hit Hard During Stay in Box; Sheehan Flashes Fine Pitching

By R. J. Kelly

SHREVEPORT, La., March 22.—A home run by Willie Pipp in the fifth inning of to-day's game gave the Yankees their third victory of the year over the local Texas League team. The contest was well played and the home players put up some real opposition. They flashed a strong defense and actually outthrew the New Yorkers. The final score was 5 to 3.

Pipp's clout went over the right field wall just after Babe Ruth had poked out his second hit of the afternoon, a three-bagger along the right field foul line. These two runs proved to be the margin of victory as the local team scored a run in the following inning, which would have tied the score.

Jack Quinn, who pitched the first five innings for the Yanks, was hit hard in the third inning, during which the Shreveport players slammed out two doubles and a single for two runs. Quinn managed to hold his opponents scoreless in the other innings, although he was found for four more safeties.

Tom Sheehan, who was purchased from the Atlanta Club, made his first appearance of the season when he relieved Quinn in the sixth. He was pitched for two hits in that inning, but quickly tightened up and allowed only one more hit for the remainder of the game.

Big Leaguers Score Early

Manager Billy Smith, of the home team, used three twirlers—Price, Bush and Hinton. The last named, a left hander, was the best of the trio. He limited the Yanks to two hits in the last four innings.

The Yankees shoved two runs across in the first inning. Pipp drove in base on balls and reached second when Hartford fumbled Connelly's grounder. Ruth shot a single to right, scoring Fawcett and putting Connelly on third. Pipp raised a fly to Masey in left field and Connelly completed the circuit after the catch.

Schang's double, a wild pitch and a single to center gave the Yanks another run in the second inning. After that the New Yorkers went hitless until Ruth drove out his triple in the fifth inning.

The Shreveport players came within one run of tying the count in the fifth when doubles by Hartford and Vann and a single by Storey gave them two tallies. They scored their other run off Sheehan in the sixth when Jackson was hit by a pitched ball and Elbal, Holahan and Vann followed with successive singles.

Ping Rodie is bothered with a sore leg and did not appear in uniform this afternoon. It is expected that he will be back in the lineup during the game with the Dodgers at the end of the week.

Roger Peckinpaugh, captain and star shortstop of the Yankees has signed his contract for the coming season. It was announced to-night.

First Big Cut in Squad

Manager Miller Huggins to-night announced the first real reduction in his large squad. One outfielder, one infielder, two catchers and seven pitchers are included in the cut. Outfielder Sid Agnew, who was obtained from the Parkersburg Industrial League Club, catcher Charles Gable, a former semi-professional from Philadelphia, and pitchers Tom Godfrey, of Tesseus's Bears, and Eugene Gramley, of Penn State College, will leave the team.

Catcher John Thole and pitcher Joe Akahski will return to their homes within the next few days. Norman McMillan, an infielder, who was purchased by the Yanks from the Greenville club of the South Atlantic League, has accepted a contract with the club of the International League, along with Earl Johnson, a pitcher who was obtained from the Cedarhurst club of the Georgia State League.

The veteran Thomas F. Sheridan, of Chicago, continued to play well in his match to-day, defeating F. V. Culver by 3 and 2. This does the Culver family make its exit on the same day from further competition.

The summary:

First division—George Morse, Ekwanok, defeated Walker, Detroit, 6 and 4. A. W. Wineman, Detroit, defeated M. Kane, Cincinnati, 4 and 2. John Shepard, New York, defeated H. M. Robbie to Depend On Two Southpaws In Yankee Series

Sherrad Smith or Ruether Will Face Huggins's Men When Games Are Resumed

Special Correspondence of The Tribune

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—The Yankees will be given a big dose of hard work have gone far toward eliminating the kinks from their salary warring, and Robbie says one or the other of his left-handers will pitch the first game when the Plathush aggregation renews combat with the Yanks.

Ruether made his first appearance of the season on the slab to-day, and while he failed to uncork any curves he put a lot of speed behind some of his balls, and said that he would dish up some of his choice assortment of twirlers in the practice to-morrow. Smith also faced the batters to-day, but he did not unlimber himself to a great extent, so it seems that Ruether will be the man to face the Yanks.

John Miller and George Mohart, right-handers, are ready for action, as they both demonstrated to-day. Of course, Leon Cadore and Jeff Pfeffer will be available when the interleague series is resumed. Pfeffer and Cadore were used to bat fungoes, while Robbie devoted his attention to the outfielders this afternoon.

Smith is beginning to get impatient for the arrival of Zack Wheat. The Brooklyn outfield ace has not been heard from since he came to terms and promised to start for the training camp forthwith. Hurlish Grimes, who has also been neglected in the correspondence with the rotund Dodger pilot of late, and the status of the pitcher, who is expected to return to a mystery to every one hereabouts.

Two Boston College Football Stars Spurned by Columbia

Bob Watt, graduate manager of athletics on Morningside Heights, last night emphatically denied the report emanating from Boston College that two of its star football players expected to register at Columbia this summer and would play on the Blue and White football team this fall.

The players mentioned in the report are Captain-elect Jack Heaphy and Quarterback James Kennedy. Both have been dropped from the rolls of Boston College on account of scholastic difficulties and apparently expect to experience little trouble registering on Morningside Heights.

Watt said yesterday that neither of the players had the slightest chance in the world of competing for the Blue and White. He stated that they had called him on the phone last week, but after he had heard their case he told them that it would be impossible for them to ever play football for Columbia. Both men were mainstays on last year's Boston eleven and doubtless would add powerful strength to the Blue and White.

Watt said no man who had been dropped from another institution could enroll at Columbia for a college degree. Furthermore, he said, even if they had not been dropped they would have to attend the university at least one year to be eligible for an athletic team. It would be impossible to get around this by registering for summer school.

Winning four out of five events contested, New York girl swimmers defeated representatives of Philadelphia 26 to 15, in the first intercity meet of the year, held last night at the City Y. M. C. A. The team finished in 1:28.25.

Miss Boyle was the individual star, registering first in the 100 and 220 yard races, and finishing second in the 100 and 220 yard races. The plunge was won by Miss Gertrude Ederle, who was the only Quaker City representative to capture a first place.

Miss Wainwright, the Olympic fancy diving champion, had an easy time winning her favorite event, Miss Violet Sawtelle, of Philadelphia, was second. The summaries:

Princeton's Star Japanese Golfer Beaten in South

Akahoski Rokuro Loses as Brother Wins at St. Augustine; Medalist Scores

Special Correspondence of The Tribune

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 22.—Close matches featured the play in the first round of all three divisions in the tournament for the winter golf championship of Florida. George Morse, of the Ekwanok Club, the medal winner and the favorite, won his match handily against C. R. Walker, of Detroit, by a score of 6 and 5.

The most interesting struggle of the day was that between John Shepard, of Providence, and Leo Karpen, of the Quaker Ridge Club, of New York. Shepard won by 1 up, after making a brilliant rally. His tee shot on the sixteenth caught a trap while Karpen drove the green. Shepard made a beautiful recovery and sank a long putt for a 3 and halved the hole. Then he won the seventeenth and also the eighteenth by sinking a long putt.

Akahoski Rokuro, the Japanese star of Princeton University, practically defeated himself in his match with H. M. Crane, of the Nassau Country Club. Akahoski drove well and also played all of his full iron shots capably. But his approach was exceedingly poor.

It is interesting to note that Rokuro's brother, Shiro, who qualified with him yesterday and who took 87 strokes to Akahoski, 87, got a 68 to-day in defeating D. L. Culver Jr. in the second division. Dr. D. L. Culver, the New York physician and star trap shooter, was eliminated by L. J. Hopkins, of Chicago, by 3 and 2.

The veteran Thomas F. Sheridan, of Chicago, continued to play well in his match to-day, defeating F. V. Culver by 3 and 2. This does the Culver family make its exit on the same day from further competition.
